Are you alright?

The criminals are being taken down and subdued sir!

The bullets aren't working.

Is it alright now?

Why would it be now
if it isn't now?

Thanks to the Door of Dimensions we managed to investigate most of the criminals safely

The Alchemists would never willingly help humans.

Even if they decided to help, "Dark" would've moved them using the shadows instead of activating a dragon artifact.

Is it because of that woman...?

Be careful!

It's always rough!

FLUTTER

DONE WITH YOU

not time yet.

FLINCH

I need to take care of the southern district and the government first...

 Whispers' Cloak
 (Place of excavation: Labyrinth of Terra)

As long as the contractor's body or the artifact touches
 the ground, you can freely manipulate the weight
 and range of the artifact.

Nothing is known about the range to which it can extend.
